Figure 7 – Distribution of decision margin (top-1 minus top-2 probability)
Margin ≈ 1 = winner takes all; margin ≈ 0 = two classes are nearly tied.
Low-margin samples are the most valuable for KD: they tell the student which classes are confusable. Gemma's margin is near 1 for almost all samples.